ALEXANDRIA NEWS NOTES.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 12.—A special grand jury, consisting of Henry Strauss, John A. Marshall, Charles W. Howell, Willam E. Baine, Frank T. King, William H. Hellmuth, Clarence C. Leadbeater, William J. Hall, and Samuel H. Lunt, convened at the corporation court room this morning. Judge Barley instructed the jury that they had been called together to investigate cases sent on to them from the police court and to inquire into any other breach of the law which might be brought to their notice. The cases that will be investigated, which have been sent on by Justice Caton, are as follows: Joseph Horseman and John Whalen, for grand larceny; Richard Burnett, receiving stolen goods; James Lewis and William McCoy, grand larceny; Pierce Lockwood, shooting with intent to kill; G. Charles Mitchell, grand larceny, and Guy Edmonston, grand larceny from the person.

KILLED BY NEGRO WOMAN.

Word has been received in this city that a negro named Jim Evans was hit in the head and killed by a negro woman during a quarrel in Alexandria county, near Ariington Junction, last Saturday night. Details of the affair are hard to obtain in this city. It is understood that Coroner Ashton held an inquest over the man's remains and that he was burled at the county's expense yesterday.

GOES TO ATTEND CONVENTION.

Fire Chief George W. Pettey left Alexandria for Chattanooga yesterday to attend the convention of fire chiefs there. This is the first time that Alexandria has ever been represented at the meeting of fire chiefs.

THE SUNDAY SERMONS.

The Rev. George W. Staples ocupled the pulpit at the Southern Methodist Church yesterday morning. The pastor, the Rev. J. P. Stump, preached at the evening service.

The Rev. Mr. Bell preached at Grace Protestant Episcopal Church at all the services yesterday.

At Immanuel Lutheran Church the Rev. Mr. Morehart occupied the pulpit.

The Best Is Here.

Just in the matter of collecting rents the convenience of having an agent counts for a great deal.

The saving of a business man's time is of great importance. All the numerous details pertaining to the managing of his property are centered upon the agent, and he has then one person to deal with, instead of many. His accounts are well kept, statements rendered as wanted, and he has the services of an entire office force, all at a nominal cost. The best is here. Try us.
